A joint HFOF / Al-Mustafa Welfare Trust Iftar

held on Thursday 7th April 7 – 9pm in Spring Grove House, West Thames College in Isleworth.

Thanks to the generosity of West Thames College the Joint Iftar was held in the beautiful Music Room and Winter Garden Room of the college. About fifty people representing most of the faith communities in the borough, West London Humanists, Hounslow Council and the Police attended the meeting. Charanjit AjitSingh, Chair of Hounslow Friends of Faith and Asma Bilal of Al-Mustafa Welfare Trust were co-hosts and introduced the speakers see pictures below:

Michael Michaelides, Executive Director of Resources and Student Experience at West Thames College welcomed everyone and gave a brief introduction about the college which is a diverse community of 6,000 students. Then Rizana Latif, a founder Trustee of Al-Mustafa Welfare Trust, explained that the Ramadan fast month reminds Muslims to be 'God conscious' and become more responsible human beings which includes giving charity to those in need. Shafiq Rehman, a Trustee of HFOF, brought greetings from Hounslow Jamia Masjid where he is General Secretary. He said that Ramadan fasting is not just about abstaining from food and drink but about purifying the heart in order to come closer to God and that all people are united by a common humanity and must work together for justice. Maqsood Ahmed, Director of UK projects for Al-Mustafa Welfare Trust, spoke about the work of the charity. Projects in the UK include help for the homeless, distribution of unsold food to the needy and a resettlement programme for female Muslim prisoners released from Bronzefield Prison. Some of the Trust's many international projects mentioned were cataract operations performed around the world, a specialist eye hospital in Lahore in Pakistan, provision of water bore holes and pumps in desert areas and helping to build mosques with solar panels which in many ways give help to poor communities.

At sunset the Muslims present had the opportunity to say prayers in the Banks Room and break their fast. Then everyone enjoyed a delicious plant based meal, courtesy of Al-Mustafa Trust, provided by caterers Cha Cha'z of Feltham.

Future HFOF Events and Activities

As Covid restrictions are easing Hounslow Friends of Faith committee is hoping to organise a 'Walk of Peace and Friendship' this summer.

There are also two Interfaith Environmental Projects in the planning stage. Firstly it is hoped some planting will take place outside Hounslow West Underground Station and secondly a sensory garden laid out within Lampton Park. Thanks to those who have already volunteered their help; once the projects get underway they will be contacted. It is hoped the ongoing upkeep of these projects can be truly interfaith.

Remembering the many areas of conflict in the world, including in Ukraine, here is a Jain prayer for peace

Peace and Universal Love is the essence of the Gospel preached by all the Enlightened Ones.

The Lord has preached that equanimity is the Dharma.
Forgive do I creatures all, and let all creatures forgive me.
Unto all have I amity, and unto none enmity.

Know that violence is the root cause of all miseries in the world.

Violence, in fact, is the knot of bondage.

'Do not injure any living being.'

This is the eternal, perennial, and unalterable way of spiritual life.

A weapon, howsoever powerful it may be, can always be superseded by a superior one;
But no weapon can, however, be superior to nonviolence and love.

 St PAUL'S
CATHEDRAL

Many major faiths are celebrating important festivals around the same time this year, a truly holy period ~ blessings and good wishes to all who will be observing days of special significance:

April

2nd Muslim: Ramadan month of fasting begins

2nd - 10th Hindu: Chaitra Navratri is a festival dedicated to the worship of Goddess Durga and her nine forms through the nine days.

10th Hindu: Rama Navami - the birthday of Rama, the seventh avatar of Vishnu, is celebrated at noon in the aarti ceremony, performed in front of a doll or of a picture depicting Rama swinging in a cradle.

April

10th – 16th Christian: Holy Week the most solemn week of the Christian year, in which Christians recall the events of the week in which Jesus was crucified, which happened on what is called Good Friday.

13th – 15th Buddhist: Songkran - New Year's Day festival

14th Sikh: Vaisakhi/Baisakhi is a Harvest Festival and New Year celebration. Sikhs remember the founding of the Order of the Khalsa in 1699 by the tenth Guru, Gobind Singh.

16th – 17th Hindu: Hanuman Jayanti This Hindu festival recalls the birth of Lord Rama's supreme devotee, the monkey-headed Hanuman, whose feats figure in the Ramayana epic.

16th – 23rd Jewish: Passover / Pesach An eight day festival when Jews commemorate the Exodus from their slavery in Egypt. The Seder meal is held in each family's home at the beginning of the festival, when the story of their deliverance is recounted. Matzah (unleavened bread) is eaten throughout the festival.

17th Christian: Easter Day is the most important festival of the Christian year, as it is when Christians celebrate the resurrection of Jesus. Many Easter traditions, such as the giving of chocolate Easter eggs symbolise the gift of new life.

20th April -1st May Baha'i: Ridvan Baha'u'llah declared himself the Promised One. The time Baha'is elect their local, national and international governing bodies.

21st Zoroastrian: Adar Mah Parab celebration of the birthday of fire. Zoroastrians visit the fire temple to give thanks for its warmth and light.

21st Hindu: Rama Navami -the birthday of Rama

23rd St Georges Day – Patron saint of England

24th Orthodox Christian / Rastafarian: Pascha / Easter

25th Jain: Mahavir Jayanti The birthday of the last Tirthankara, or great teacher and model of the Jainas.

May

1st Muslim: Ramadan ends.

2nd Muslim: Eid-ul-Fitr - once the fast of Ramadan has been completed it is a time for making gifts to the poor and families gathering together. The community assembles for Eid prayer and a sermon at its mosques.

May

- 16th Buddhist: Vesakha Puja/ Buddha Day the birth, enlightenment and final passing away of Gautama Buddha are celebrated.
- 19th Jewish: Lag B'Omer The Omer lasts 49 days from Pesach to Shavuot. A time of sadness, it is relieved on the 33rd day. It recalls the end of a plague in Roman times. Weddings often take place on this day, since they are not usually permitted during the rest of the Omer period.
- 23rd Zoroastrian: Zaratosht no-Diso is a commemoration of the death of the prophet Zoroaster.
- 23rd Baha'i: Anniversary of the Declaration of the Bab. The Bab heralded the arrival of Baha'ullah and was co-founder of the Baha'i faith. He first declared his mission in Persia in 1844. He inaugurated the Baha'i calendar which numbers itself from the year of this declaration.
- 26th Christian: Ascension Day the returning of the risen Jesus into heaven
- 29th Baha'i: Anniversary of the Ascension of commemorating the death of Baha'u'llah at Bahji, near Acre, in 1892.

June

- 2nd Ascension Day (40th day after Easter) Christian (Orthodox Churches) This day commemorates the last earthly appearance of the Risen Christ, who, according to Christian belief, ascended into heaven in the presence of many witnesses.
- 5th Christian: Pentecost - celebration of the coming of the Holy Spirit.
- 5/6th Jewish: Shavuot / The Feast of Weeks - Seven weeks after Pesach, Shavuot celebrates the revelation of the Torah on Mount Sinai and the early harvest season in Israel. Summer flowers and dairy foods abound.
- 13th Christian: Pentecost (Orthodox Churches) celebration of the coming of the Holy Spirit.
- 16th Sikh: Martyrdom of Guru Arjan Dev (1606) The fifth Guru was executed on the orders of the Moghul Emperor, Jehangir, for refusing to pay a fine arising from a charge of treason. Guru Arjan made the first compilation of the Sikh Scriptures, called the Adi Granth, and supervised the completion of what is now the Golden Temple in Amritsar.
